3rd

frcpath part 1 COURSE

4-day course: 21st - 24th June 2010

This is a 4 day Revision Course preparing trainees for the Histopathology FRCPath Part 1 Examination

Course Objectives:

- Course aims to cover all the major topic areas of the examination syllabus
- Excellent feedback from previous courses
- All course topics are MCQ and EMQ based with time allocated to practice examination style questions
- Trainers have been selected for their expertise within their disciplines, both in their clinical acumen but also their teaching skills
- Format of the course is intense and demanding but also rewarding

Key Features of the Course:

Exam orientated Course
Pre-course and mid-course questions
Consultant and Senior Registrars lecturing, with a pedigree of teaching
Opportunity to address and discuss difficult questions
Feedback from Speakers
Online access to practice questions NEW

Course Contents

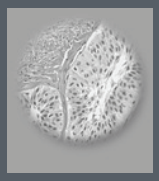
- Practice MCQs
- What the examiners are looking for

General Pathology and Management

- Basic Science (anatomy, physiology)
- Special Stains and Immunochemistry
- Minimum Datasets and Clinical Staging
- Audit, Stats & Research
- Molecular Pathology

Systemic Pathology

- Lung and Heart
- Gastro-Intestinal System
- Liver and Pancreas
- Uropathology
- Breast
- Renal
- Gynaepathology
- Head and Neck
- Skin
- Soft Tissue and Bone
- Paediatric
- Neuropathology
- Cytopathology



The Autopsy

Target Audience

ST1, ST2 and ST3 trainees preparing for Histopathology FRCPath Part 1 examination

Early Bird Fee: £425
Fee after 14th May: £450

Venue: Cresta Court Hotel

Altrincham, Manchester

Limited places, book now!

Office: 0161 980 8882
Email: info@oxbridgemedica.com
Website: www.oxbridgemedica.com